Notes.—Applicable to Schedules A, B and C—

(i) All rates are ceiling prices for first quality timber. For second quality the ceiling prices shall be at least six annas lower for A and D and eight annas lower for B and C class timbers.

(ii) In the case of timber with serious end or middle faults the purchaser may require the seller to re-saw by not more than two cross cuts and to sell the shorter length or lengths of sound timber.

(iii) Except in the case of Schedule C, in which the rates are the ceiling prices at site of sale, all rates are ceiling prices for the timber delivered at the nearest Government of India Timber Storage Depot, or alongside railway; or jetty or at the purchaser's depot, provided the purchaser's depot is not more distant from the seller's depot than the nearest railway siding or jetty.

(iv) In the event of the seller not undertaking the delivery at the site required by note (iii) above, the purchaser may deduct from the price the actual cost of carriage of the timber from the site of sale to the point of delivery prescribed in note (iii).

(v) In the event of timber being requisitioned under rule 75A of the Defence of India Rules by an officer duly empowered in that behalf, the requisitioning officer may in his discretion pay less than the scheduled ceiling price, provided that he shall only exercise such discretion for a valid reason which shall be recorded in his requisition order. A current local market rate being lower than the scheduled rate shall constitute in itself a valid reason for the requisitioning officer to exercise his discretion in this respect.
